

In your first few weeks as an asylum seeker in Sweden:

- You will be registered by the Swedish Migration Agency.
- You will initially be housed at a temporary accommodation centre.
- The Swedish Migration Agency may want to talk to you again.
- The Swedish Migration Agency decides which municipality will be responsible for you.
- You do not decide where in Sweden you will live. It is the decision of the municipality that is responsible for you.
- You will live in an accommodation centre with other children/young people or with a family or a relative, i.e. family member or close friend.
- You will go to school.
- While you are an asylum-seeker you will receive help with your personal finances and other things by a specially appointed custodian ("god man").
- You can read more about coming to Sweden without parents at:

www.informationsverige.se

Migrationsverket

LÄNSSTYRELSEN
VÄSTRA GÖTALANDS LÄN

In your first few weeks as an asylum seeker in Sweden:

- You will be registered by the Swedish Migration Agency.
- You will initially be housed at a temporary accommodation centre.
- The Swedish Migration Agency may want to talk to you again.
- The Swedish Migration Agency decides which municipality will be responsible for you.
- You do not decide where in Sweden you will live. It is the decision of the municipality that is responsible for you.
- You will live in an accommodation centre with other children/young people or with a family or a relative, i.e. family member or close friend.
- You will go to school.
- While you are an asylum-seeker you will receive help with your personal finances and other things by a specially appointed custodian ("god man").
- You can read more about coming to Sweden without parents at:

www.informationsverige.se

Migrationsverket

LÄNSSTYRELSEN
VÄSTRA GÖTALANDS LÄN

In your first few weeks as an asylum seeker in Sweden:

- You will be registered by the Swedish Migration Agency.
- You will initially be housed at a temporary accommodation centre.
- The Swedish Migration Agency may want to talk to you again.
- The Swedish Migration Agency decides which municipality will be responsible for you.
- You do not decide where in Sweden you will live. It is the decision of the municipality that is responsible for you.
- You will live in an accommodation centre with other children/young people or with a family or a relative, i.e. family member or close friend.
- You will go to school.
- While you are an asylum-seeker you will receive help with your personal finances and other things by a specially appointed custodian ("god man").
- You can read more about coming to Sweden without parents at:

www.informationsverige.se

Migrationsverket

LÄNSSTYRELSEN
VÄSTRA GÖTALANDS LÄN

In your first few weeks as an asylum seeker in Sweden:

- You will be registered by the Swedish Migration Agency.
- You will initially be housed at a temporary accommodation centre.
- The Swedish Migration Agency may want to talk to you again.
- The Swedish Migration Agency decides which municipality will be responsible for you.
- You do not decide where in Sweden you will live. It is the decision of the municipality that is responsible for you.
- You will live in an accommodation centre with other children/young people or with a family or a relative, i.e. family member or close friend.
- You will go to school.
- While you are an asylum-seeker you will receive help with your personal finances and other things by a specially appointed custodian ("god man").
- You can read more about coming to Sweden without parents at:

www.informationsverige.se

Migrationsverket

LÄNSSTYRELSEN
VÄSTRA GÖTALANDS LÄN

In your first few weeks as an asylum seeker in Sweden:

- You will be registered by the Swedish Migration Agency.
- You will initially be housed at a temporary accommodation centre.
- The Swedish Migration Agency may want to talk to you again.
- The Swedish Migration Agency decides which municipality will be responsible for you.
- You do not decide where in Sweden you will live. It is the decision of the municipality that is responsible for you.
- You will live in an accommodation centre with other children/young people or with a family or a relative, i.e. family member or close friend.
- You will go to school.
- While you are an asylum-seeker you will receive help with your personal finances and other things by a specially appointed custodian ("god man").
- You can read more about coming to Sweden without parents at:

www.informationsverige.se

Migrationsverket

LÄNSSTYRELSEN
VÄSTRA GÖTALANDS LÄN

Information for new arrivals in

Sweden who are without their parents

Information for new arrivals in

Sweden who are without their parents

Information for new arrivals in

Sweden who are without their parents

Information for new arrivals in

Sweden who are without their parents

Information for new arrivals in

Sweden who are without their parents